[BY AUTHORITY.]

LAWS OF NEW JERSEY.

CHAPTER LVI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to establish in this state boards of health and a bureau of vital statistics, and to define their respective powers and duties," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That local boards of health, except township boards, shall, in addition to the powers enumerated in the act to which this is a supplement, have power to pass, alter or amend ordinances, and make rules or regulations within their respective jurisdictions:

I. To compel, prescribe, regulate and control the plumbing, ventilation and drainage of all buildings, public and private, and the connection thereof with outside sewers, cesspools or other receptacles, and to require plans for the same, with necessary drawings or descriptions, to be submitted to said boards for inspection and approval, and to require all master and foreman plumbers and all building contractors to register their names and addresses at the office of said board;

II. To secure the sanitary condition of all buildings, public and private.

2. And be it enacted, That any such board of health may, by resolution, delegate any portion of its powers to any member of the board, or to any officer thereof, to be exercised only when the board is not in session, and any notice by any member of the board, or by any officer thereof, shall be notice by the board, and the person served therewith shall be bound thereby.

3. And be it enacted, That the conviction in prosecutions by any local board of health to recover penalties for the violation of the ordinances of said board, shall be in the following or similar form:

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, } ss.
County of ——— }

Be it remembered that on this day of A. D. at in said county, defendant, was, by the Second District Court of the city of N. (or by E. F., a police justice, or as the case is), convicted of violating section of the sanitary code of the Board of Health of the said city of N (or of an ordinance, entitled "An Ordinance," &c.), in a summary proceeding, at the suit of the said Board of Health of the city of N., plaintiff, upon a complaint made by ; and further, that the witnesses in said proceeding who testified for the plaintiff, were (name them), and the witnesses who testified for the defendant were (name them); wherefore, the said court (or police justice, as the case is), doth hereby give judgment that the plaintiff recover of the defendant dollars penalty and dollars and cents costs of this proceeding.

The said conviction shall be signed by the judge of the district court, police justice or other magistrate, before whom the conviction is had; in case of the infliction of a penalty, the amount of which is increased by the fact that it is for a second or additional violation, the conviction shall state that it appeared that the defendant had been guilty of a previous violation of the same section of said code or ordinance; the costs in prosecutions under the act to which this is a supplement, shall be the same as costs before justices of the peace, police justices or recorders, or in district courts in other civil actions.

4. And be it enacted, That any judgment rendered on conviction of a violation of any section of any ordinance or code of any local board of health, by any court having jurisdiction of such proceeding, may be docketed in the court of common pleas, as other judgments recorded in said courts may be, and in the same manner, and such judgment shall, from the time of said docketing in the court of common pleas, operate as a judgment obtained in a suit originally commenced in said court, and satisfaction thereof may be entered in the margin of the docket in the same manner and on the same evidence as is now provided by law in case of judgments rendered in the courts of common pleas; and the execution issued thereon shall be of the same effect as to the property of the defendant, either of a personal or real nature, as if issued on a judgment originally obtained in the court of common pleas upon a suit commenced therein; and after said docketing, no further proceeding shall be had in the said district, police, justice's or recorder's court, in which said judgment was obtained.

Approved February 22, 1888.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1888.

CHAPTER XCI.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to secure to creditors an equal and just division of the estate of debtors who convey to assignees for the benefit of creditors" [Revision,] approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for any assignee or assignees to whom any land shall be or shall have been conveyed, by any debtor or debtors for the benefit of creditors, to make sale of the whole or any portion of the lands so conveyed, at private sale, under the order and direction of the court of chancery.

2. And be it enacted, In all cases where any assignee or assignees as aforesaid shall deem it to be for the best interest of the creditors of the assigned estate to make sale of the whole or any portion of the lands so assigned, at private sale, it shall and may be lawful for such assignee to apply by petition to the court of chancery, setting forth the date and place of record of the deed of assignment, a description of the lands [illegible] value thereof, and the name of any proposed purchaser, if such there be, with the price which such purchaser proposes to pay for the same, and that in the judgment of said assignee or assignees the interest of the creditors of the assignor will be benefited by a sale of such lands at private sale, and that such assignee or assignees hath or have no interest, directly or indirectly, in the sale or purchase of lands except to benefit the creditors of such assignor or assignors; which petition shall be verified by the affidavit of such assignee or assignees, which affidavit shall, in addition to verifying the facts stated in such petition, generally, particularly set forth that in the judgment of such assignee or assignees, the interests of the creditors of such assignor or assignors will be benefited by a sale of such lands at private sale, and that such assignee or assignees hath or have no interest, directly or indirectly, in the sale or purchase of such lands, except to benefit the creditors of such assignor or assignors.

3. And be it enacted, That such assignee or assignees shall give public notice, by advertisement published for two weeks next preceding the day on which such order will be applied for, in two newspapers of the county or counties in which said lands may lie, setting forth briefly the location and description of said lands and the time and place when and where such order will be applied for; if it shall appear to the court of chancery that such notice has been given, and that the facts in said petition and affidavit are true, and no cause being shown to the contrary, it shall and may be lawful for said court forthwith to make an order directing such assignee or assignees to make sale at private sale of such lands, assigned as aforesaid, at a sum not less than a price or prices to be prescribed by said court, which sale, when so made, shall be reported by such assignee or assignees to said court and upon being confirmed by said court, such assignee or assignees shall execute and deliver a deed or deeds to the purchaser or purchasers of such lands, and such deed or deeds when delivered as aforesaid shall vest in the purchaser or purchasers of such lands so sold the same and no other estate or interest in said lands as would have passed to such purchaser or purchasers had such land or lands been sold at public sale by such assignee or assignees after due advertisement thereof.

4. And be it enacted, That in all cases where any lands have been heretofore sold or conveyed by any assignee or assignees, for the benefit of creditors at private sale, it shall and may be lawful for such assignee or assignees, upon like notice of intention to apply to said court of chancery in the manner aforesaid, to apply by petition to said court, setting forth the several matters hereinbefore stated, which petition shall be verified as aforesaid, and upon the filing of such petition, and due proof of the publication of the notice hereinabove required, if no cause be shown or appear to the contrary, and if the said court shall be of the opinion that the sale or conveyance of said lands heretofore made at private sale by such assignee or assignees was made at the fair market value thereof at the time of such sale, that such sale was beneficial to the interests of the creditors of said assigned estate, and that such assignee or assignees had and hath no interest in the sale or purchase of the lands so sold at private sale, except to benefit the creditors of such assignor or assignors, it shall and may be lawful for said court to confirm said sale, and upon such confirmation, when made as aforesaid, the deed or deeds heretofore made by said assignee or assignees for such lands so sold shall have the same force and effect, and no other, as if said sale or sales and conveyance or conveyances had been made in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section of this act.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1888.

CHAPTER XCII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of insurance companies," approved April ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.
